

The radio station K-LOVE provides family-friendly programming. Our community is served well by this station. It is in the best public interest to keep this station on the air due to it's quality and wholesome programming.